

Level Up Your Career with AAERT

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

- Connect and network with members and industry leaders from around the globe
- Gain access to our knowledgeable board members with experience from all levels and industry segments
- Receive special member rates to events
- Stay attuned to industry news, developments, challenges and solutions
- Demonstrate your commitment to your career by being involved in this professional association

Support AAERT's efforts to secure legislation that benefits digital reporting and legal transcription. Membership matters, and so does your time if you choose to volunteer!

MEMBERSHIP DUES

- Professional – $125
- Associate – $100
- Apprentice – $75

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF ELECTRONIC REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

CERTIFICATION OPTIONS

CER: To obtain your CER® certification, you are required to pass an online multiple choice knowledge examination.

The knowledge examination includes questions covering; court and non-court proceedings, reporting protocols and digital reporting software and equipment, general legal procedures, ethical and professional behavior, and vocabulary.

CET: To obtain your CET® certification, you are required to pass an online multiple choice knowledge examination and produce a transcript from a digitally recorded proceeding (practical examination).

The knowledge examination includes questions covering; transcript formatting and proofreading, transcription software and equipment, general legal procedures, ethical and professional behavior, and vocabulary.

CDR: To obtain your CDR certification, you are required to pass an online multiple choice knowledge examination.

The knowledge examination includes questions covering; depositions and other non-court proceedings, reporting protocols and digital reporting software and equipment, general legal procedures, ethical and professional behavior, and vocabulary.

CERTIFICATION COUNTS

Through certification you increase your:

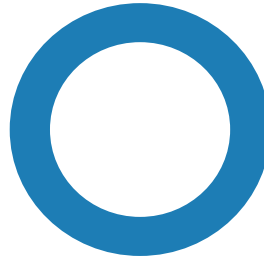

- Earning potential
- Professional credibility
- Job market
- Education and knowledge
- Job security

Don't get left behind!
Get certified with AAERT today!

AAERT'S MISSION

The American Association of Electronic Reporters and Transcribers (AAERT) provides education and certification for professionals engaged in digital reporting, transcribing, and associated roles.

AAERT offers networking opportunities for its members and promotes public awareness about the value of digital reporting.

136 Everett Rd | Albany, NY 12205
518-432-9973 | www.aaert.org